Minister Held At Mound City For Killing Wife

MOUND CITY, Ill. (U.P.)—A Mound City Negro minister sought by authorities since Sunday on a murder charge in the pistol slaying of his wife is in custody here today.

Pulaski County Sheriff Robert Aldrich said the Rev. P. B. C. Lewis, 56, had orally acknowledged that he killed his wife, Birdie Roe Lewis, 58, because of "family trouble."

Lewis was arrested Monday afternoon by East St. Louis authorities and was returned here Sunday at the Brooklyn, Ill., A. M. E. Church in the East St. Louis area a few hours after his wife, a school teacher, had been slain. "This was" be my last sermon," he reportedly told the congregation at Brooklyn.

Earlier in the day, his wife had driven him to Cairo to catch a bus to Brooklyn. Later, Lewis followed his wife back by cab, then left home alone in the family car, Aldrich said.

Egypt Brings New Crisis to Middle East

Israel Warns UN Against Accepting Egyptian Governor

BULLETIN WASHINGTON (U.P.)—The United States urged Egypt today to cooperate with the United Nations to keep peace in the troubled Gaza Strip.

By United Press

Israel warned Egypt today that U. N. acceptance of an Egyptian governor in the Gaza Strip would be regarded by Israel as a breach of its withdrawal agreement.

Egypt announced Monday it had named Maj. Gen. Hassan Abdel Latif as administrative governor of Gaza and ordered him to take up his duties immediately.

Moshe Leshem, official spokesman for the Israeli Foreign Office, indicated in Jerusalem the entrance of Latif would free Israel of its obligations to pull Israeli soldiers out of Egyptian territory.

U. N. Assistant Secretary-General Ralph Bunche conferred in Cairo with Egyptian officials in an effort to head off an Egyptian takeover of the Gaza Strip.

The Egyptian announcement it was ready to take over the Gaza Strip from the U. N. Emergency Forces brought a crisis between Egypt and the United Nations and worsened Israeli-Egyptian relations.

Jerusalem newspapers warned that the Israeli government may have to take "drastic action" if the Egyptians return and unleash Fedayeen commandos to attack Israel.

British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan called in his cabinet for urgent consultations on the growing threat of a new Mideast explosion.

Britain feared another hitch in the free flow of oil and the possibility of a renewed Egyptian blockade of the Gulf of Aqaba with its threat of war.

Israel was looking to the United States to take the lead in the developing crisis that could revert once again to open warfare.

In Washington U. S. officials would say only they were watching the situation "very closely," and would not state whether they planned any specific moves.

Introduce Bill in House to Pay Bonus of $75 Million to Illinois Korean Veterans

SPRINGFIELD (U.P.)—A Korean bonus bill to pay a total of 75 million dollars to Illinois war veterans was introduced today in the Illinois House.

The bill called for payment of $10 a month for each month served in the armed forces between June 27, 1950, and July 27, 1953, plus a flat $100 payment to holders of the Korean service medal.

A penny a package tax would be levied to pay for the bonus. Bonds would be issued and retired over a period of seven or eight years from additional revenue from the cigarette tax.

The bonus proposal would be subject to a referendum in 1958. The rate of interest on the bonds would be 3 1/2 cent.

The bill was sponsored by a legislative commission set up to study the question of a bonus after a bonus bill was vetoed in 1955 by Gov. William G. Stratton.

Stratton said then the bonus proposal should have more study. The Senate, meanwhile, passed and sent to the House a bill to appropriate $500,000 for purchase and free distribution of Salk polio vaccine.

The Illinois Health Department would use the money to buy vaccine and distribute it free to physicians, clinics, local health departments and other agencies. A million-dollar appropriation for the vaccine was made available two years ago, but it has been exhausted.

The bill originally called for $1-

500,000, but was cut to $500,000 in committee hearings.

The House meanwhile passed and sent to the Senate a bill that would make parents financially responsible up to $300 for malicious damage and destruction by their children.

The House passed and sent to the Senate a bill which would provide for distribution of federal funds for national forest areas to school districts according to the proportion of their land within a national forest, instead of the basis of the number of pupils attending school in the district. The federal government makes payments in lieu of taxes to districts which overlap national forest areas.

Special Message Urges Doubled Police Force

Governor Proposes Flat Daytime, Night Speed Limits

SPRINGFIELD (U.P.)—Gov. William G. Stratton called today for an absolute speed limit law, doubling of the state police force and tougher enforcement of traffic laws to curb highway butchery.

In a special message to a joint session of the Legislature, Stratton also:

—Recommended an increase from $1 to $3 in the drivers license fee, with the additional money going to high school driver training programs.

—Called for legislation to set a system of standards for chemical tests to determine with accuracy, and with legal backing, when a driver is drunk.

—Took a rap at local law enforcement agencies, particularly in small downstate communities, and at police magistrates and justices of the peace for alleged laxity in traffic law enforcement.

Asked for legislation to require re-examination of drivers at 70 years of age and to require physicians to report to the state conditions discovered in their patients which could make them potentially dangerous drivers.

"We Americans," Stratton said, "are literally killing ourselves on our highways." He said Illinois' traffic death rate increased 3 percent in 1956 in the face of a nationwide increase, but "it is poor advantage to be proud of the fact that we killed only 2,135 in Illinois in 1956."

"Recklessness, carelessness, unconscionable speeds, drunken driving, lack of courtesy on the roads, these are sins that must be paid for in the currency of death," he said, "in the coin of broken bodies, the shattered stumps of a steering wheel crashing through a chest, the head of a loved one thrust through a windshield, the warped body of a child bleeding in the street."

Stratton asked for the same type of speed law which he sought and saw defeated in the last legislative session.

He proposed a flat limit of 65 miles an hour daytime and 55 miles an hour at night for automobiles and busses on state routes, with the Highway Division empowered to set a 70-mile limit on limited access, or "superhighway" types of roads.

The Highway Division also would have power to set limits lower than 65 miles where road conditions demanded it.

He urged a limit of 50 miles an hour on roads with a 50-foot right-of-way.

The President's Health

First, a Measuring Stick

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

President Eisenhower's health is a matter of intense concern to 170 million Americans and many millions more beyond these shores. Right now it is not good, and every possible effort needs to be made to restore it without further painful and damaging delay.

He can't shake off the racking cough he developed on inauguration day, and it's wearing him down generally. And with Vice President Nixon and Secretary of State Dulles out of the country, he feels he can't leave the firing line to get badly needed rest.

The millions who have a deep personal affection for the President and who understand his importance to free mankind want him freed of further distress and danger—no matter what arrangements are required to achieve that end.

His doctors call the ailment tracheitis—inflammation of a section of the windpipe below the voice box. There appears some question as to the cause—whether virus or bacterial. Surely exhaustive tests are demanded to determine the fact.

Rest is deemed the only effective cure, and that seems to mean chiefly freedom from the necessity of constant talking—the inevitable burden of a busy executive.

Agreement doesn't exist on whether Mr. Eisenhower ought to get out of Washington into a warmer climate. Some say the dry southwest wouldn't help. But if any real conviction is had that he should seek a sunny spot, he should go there without delay.

If that means bringing Nixon and Dulles home on the earliest flights available, let it be done. Africa and Australia will keep.

The President has managed the government from vacation points before, and it can be managed again. Every lawmaker or official having business with him can go to him wherever he is. Recent evidence that some lawmakers testily refused to fly to his Georgia headquarters but insisted he return to Washington hardly can sit well with the American people.

Mr. Eisenhower did not undertake a second term under false pretenses. He made plain he would need more relaxation, more care from his doctors, more time away from Washington. Knowing that, some 35 million Americans voted to send him to the White House for four more years.

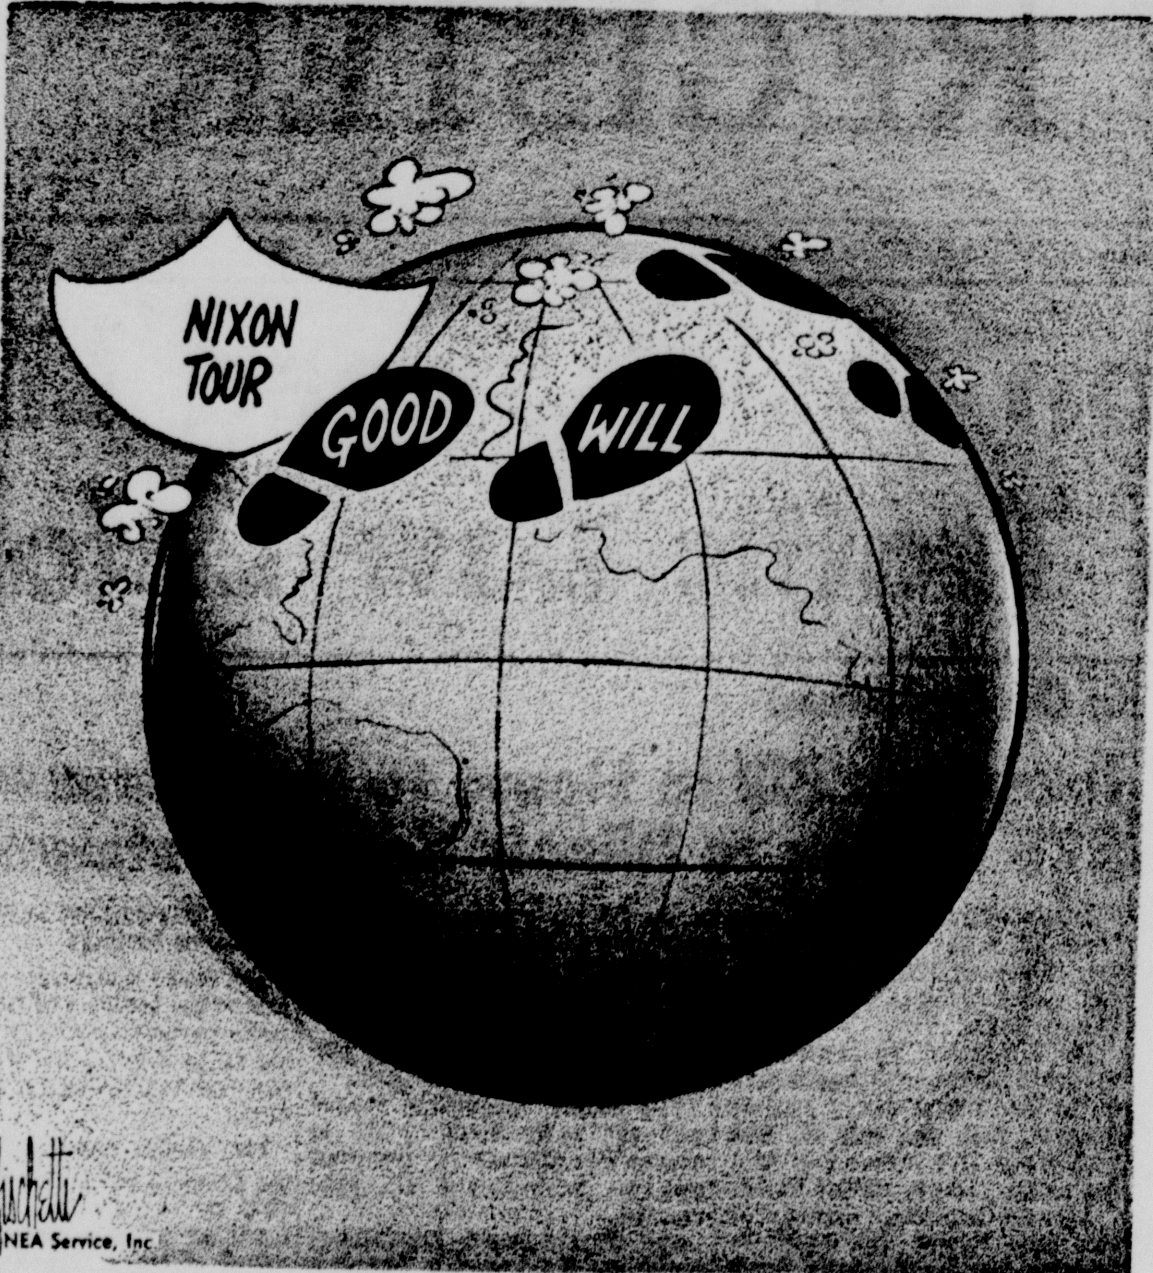

An American president, the world's most overburdened man, should not have to apologize for trying to preserve his health. He should not have to jeopardize it to silence his critics.

The people Ike represents across the world want him in full health and vigor.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: The White House Cooled On Len Hall As Part of Administration; GOP Leaders Continued To Put Ike On Spot Re Hall; Hall Hasn't Testified Yet On Charge That He Influenced Government Contract.

WASHINGTON. — It was no accident that the conservative leaders of the Grand Old Party gave a reception for ex-Chairman Len Hall in the Senate caucus room where it would get as much publicity as possible.

It was probably also no accident that President Eisenhower that same morning kissed off a press conference query with a laconic comment that if "a suitable post" became available for Len Hall, "I have no doubt his name would occur to me."

The timing was accidental, but not Ike's calculated reply.

For some time, GOP leaders have been reaching a slow boil over the treatment given the man who, more than any other, first maneuvered Eisenhower into running again, kept the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket intact, and piloted it through the '56 campaign. It was Hall, who, after Eisenhower was stricken in Denver, met the press and, without the faintest idea the President would ever recover, boldly told newsmen there would be no change, Ike would run.

Hall has confessed privately that he was traveling on sheer nerve. He knew Mamie was dead opposed. He knew brother Milton was opposed. But gradually he built up a self-confidence in Eisenhower and a feeling that it was only natural for a man with a heart attack to run for President.

Senators Knowland (Calif.) and Bridges (N. H.), with ex-Speaker Joe Martin (Mass.), remembering this, have seen four months go by since the election with no job gesture for Len Hall. That's one reason they organized the gala party and invited Ike to be there.

IKE'S COLD FEET

What cooled the White House on Hall after November 6 was that the boys around Ike began to take a good look at testimony before the House Government Operations committee regarding Len's influencing of government contracts. The Democrats were unable to get the press and public to pay much attention to this in '56. But the House Government Operations committee has begun to reinvestigate the sworn testimony that Hall held up a contract for the government's Nicaraguan nickel plant in Cuba until officials of the Frederick H. Snare Co. contributed $7,000 to the Republican party.

This is against the law. Hall was asked to testify by Congressman Jack Brooks of Texas, but so far has been about as busy as Dave Beck—though not so absent.

On top of this, the White House learned that Hall's brother-in-law, C. Malcolm Dowsey, had been indicted in Potsdam, N. Y., on a charge of forgery. Allegedly he forged his wife's name to a $2,500 mortgage and a $2,500 bond. This does not reflect on Hall. But with guilt-by-association having been made popular by Nixon and McCarthy it's feared the Democrats may make the most of it.

All this was behind Ike's press conference reply: "I have no doubt his name would occur to me."

Those unresponsive words, carried immediately by press and the political grapevine to Capitol Hill, raised the hackles still further on GOP necks. Warned of this reaction, the President went all out to praise Hall in a statement at the congressional reception. But significantly, he boosted Len for governor of New York, not for a job inside his own administration.

WHITE TIE AND TAILS

Congressmen who attended the annual White House reception last week were starched, prim, and proper. But some had resurrected their white ties and tails from the moth and were hoping no one would see the moth holes.

Rep. Bernard W. "Pat" Kearney (R. N. Y.) looked especially elegant. But only his secretary, Sally Liddle, knew that he had something in common with Adlai Stevenson—a big hole in the sole of his right shoe. Sally had ordered a new pair of shoes, but they didn't arrive on time.

A Democratic colleague, Rep. Charles Boyle of Illinois, also looked prim and proper — until told his white tie was inside out. "You can see the 'size 17' plain as day on it," chided Congressman Hale Boggs of Louisiana and Charles Vanik of Ohio.

Boyle was only a few feet away from Eisenhower in the reception line, but he whipped off the tie and retied it before he shook hands with the President.

"How did you do that so fast?" marveled Boggs. "You must have worked in a haberdashery."

"No, I used to drive a bus while working my way through law school in Chicago," explained Boyle. "I had to wear a uniform with a bow tie. We drivers used to loosen our ties on hot days, but we had to know how to retie fast when a bus inspector showed up."

CZAR HOWARD SMITH

Shrewd, courtly Congressman Howard Smith, who represents

George Washington's home town just across the Potomac river, has proposed a neat little bill that is going to make veterans howl to high heaven.

The bill, called H. Res. 159, looks harmless enough on the surface. But it would make Smith even more of a czar than he is today. Today, as chairman of the Rules committee, he ranks almost next to Speaker Sam Rayburn as the most potent figure in Congress. His committee can decide what bills should be pushed before Congress, what bill should be bypassed.

But there are certain types of legislation, certain committees which don't have to go through Smith. The chairman of these committees can bypass him, go direct to the full Congress. So Smith now proposes ending their power, thereby increasing his power.

He would cut off the power of Chairman Olin Teague (Texas), of the Veterans committee, to take veterans' pension problems to the full Congress. This would permit Smith to bottle up pension bills. Smith would also curtail the power of Chairman Charles Buckley (New York) of the Public Works committee to take rivers and harbors appropriations direct to the House. He would also curtail the right of Clair Engle (Calif.), chairman of the Interior Committee, to take Hawaiian and Alaskan statehood to the full Congress, plus certain other bills dealing with public lands.

This gets down to the inside reason for Smith's sleeper resolution. He heads a bloc of southern Democrats determined to stop statehood. They don't want to increase the margin of northern liberals in the House, and are fearful that new Alaskan and Hawaiian congressmen would do so. That's the reason for Smith's bill to curtail the power of various committees.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY
Seek the Lord and His strength,
His face continually. — I Chron-

A casual seeking is not enough.
But is takes great trials and tribulations to make us persist in seeking. 'It pays though.

Speaks A Language All Its Own!

Take a good look at this gentleman as he strides out into the early morning to his waiting car.

In all probability you feel—as we do—that you know a goodly number of things about him.

First of all, we would be willing to venture that he is a man who holds to high standards of achievement.

We would guess that he is held in high personal esteem by his friends and associates.

And we would also suppose that he is a practical man who is keenly aware of the basic value and worth of the things around him.

The reason for all this is not far to seek.

For the motor car that awaits him at the curb-side bears the beautiful crest of Cadillac. And here, beyond all conjecture, is the most eloquent spokesman in the entire realm of possessions.

In fact, the Cadillac car has, over the years, been so closely associated with the leading citizenry of our land that the two have become all but inseparable in the public mind.

And just as these motorists have placed their trust in Cadillac, so Cadillac has given them everything they could hope for in an automobile.

Cadillac has given them unduplicated beauty and luxury . . . unsurpassed performance and comfort . . . and extraordinary quality and value.

Have you driven a 1957 Cadillac? If not, we urge you to come in and let the car tell you its own thrilling story on the highway.

We think you will agree that this year, more than ever, Cadillac speaks a language all its own!

They visited one of the most beautiful and thrilling scenic places in Texas, called the Pecos River Canyon near the Pecos river mouth at the Rio Grande. The canyon is being spanned by the eighth

Woman Lawyer Dethrones Van Doren on TV Quiz, Cuts Winnings to $129,000

NEW YORK (UPI)—Charles Van Doren, whose amazing knowledge catapulted him into television fame, was dethroned Monday night by a woman lawyer and the king of Belgium.

To console him, however, the 31-year-old Columbia College instructor had $129,000 — the remains of his winnings after his defeat by Mrs. Vivienne Nearing and the largest pool ever raked in on a single quiz program in the history of television.

Mrs. Nearing not only knocked the $4,400-a-year instructor off the show, but she took a $14,000 bite out of the $143,000 pile Van Doren had amassed over 13 previous appearances on the quiz show, NBC-TV's "Twenty One." Van Doren, son of Pulitzer Prize poet Mark Van Doren, had built up his stake by defeating 13 other challengers.

Three Previous Ties

Van Doren said after the show that he expected to keep "some what more than $30,000... about $35,000, maybe" of his $129,000.

Van Doren, who had tied Mrs. Nearing in three previous rounds on the quiz game which is based roughly on the card game, "black-

Totally Disabled Should Protect Rights Under Social Security Law

"If you are permanently and totally disabled, and have worked long enough under social security, be sure to protect your social security rights before July 1, 1957," according to advice from E. Bishop Hill, manager of the district Social Security office at Harrisburg. A person who has had social security credits for 5 years out of 10 years preceding the onset of his disability and has worked 1 1/2 years out of the 3 years immediately preceding his disability, can protect his rights by filing an application before July 1, 1957, to freeze his wage record. In this way, the time since he was disabled will not be counted against him.

"Disabled people should seriously heed this warning," continued Mr. Hill, "because two important losses can occur to the wage earner or his loved ones." If this application for disability freeze is not made by June 30, 1957, then the time he has been disabled and has had little earnings will be included in figuring out the average monthly wage of the worker when he reaches age 65 and applies for

THE STORY: Joe Jagger feels secure in the belief that no one will ever learn that the gold they used to build Pawnee City, shipping point in Kansas for Texas cattle, was stolen. But his partner Chad Morgan believes that Tom Alder, a Missourian, suspects the truth. Meanwhile Alder has just shot a man.

XIII

Alder held his gun, loosely, his eyes going easily around the ring of faces.

No one spoke. Pillsbury came out of his office, pushed his way through the crowds. His eyes went to the dead man on the floor, to Tom Alder, then to the dealer at the faro table.

The dealer said, "It was a fair fight."

When Tom Alder killed the Texan, Withers, the town of Pawnee City was officially two months, plus three days, old. Two men had been killed on the first fateful day, one of them lynched. There had been violence in Pawnee City right from the start. Drunken cowboys rode their horses up and down the street and fired at the sun and the moon and the stars. Occasionally their exuberance was a little more obstreperous and they sent a bullet through a windowpane of one of the numerous stores along Main Street. Now and then a man rode a horse into a store or saloon.

This was in the nature of sport. The Texans were proud. They had fought a war and lost and did not take well to the rule of the North. They hated the North and everything pertaining to it. Kansas especially.

Yet, in spite of the violence, there had been no deaths in Pawnee City after that first day. Not until the gun duel between Alder and Withers, in which Withers had died.

No one blamed Alder, no one castigated him. He was not a Texas man, but he had fought for the South.

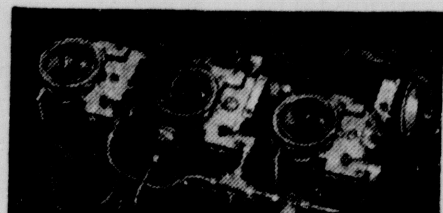

Yet Alder's killing of the Texan, Withers, seemed to set the torch to the tinder that had been smoldering for more than two months.

Texas humiliation. Texas pride. Texas rage.

A dozen Texas men rode into Pawnee City in mid-morning, following the night of the gun duel. They rode in a body to The Texas Saloon.

One of the Texas men, a tow-headed, hard-faced man, said to

CONSTIPATED?

New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H stimulate it to action; to a normal urge to purge.

And, of all laxatives, only COLONOID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONOID's great moisturizing capacity, plus COLONOID's stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONOID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONOID neither gags, bloats nor grips; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.

It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONOID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONOID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98c for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Portland Mayor Charges 'Fishing Expedition' In Lie Detector Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mayor Terry D. Schunk of Portland, Ore., said today he walked out on a lie detector test because it was a "fishing expedition" by the Secret Service and Senate Rackets Committee aimed at "making me funk."

Schunk answered under oath today six of the questions he balked at answering to the lie detector. But he told the committee they were "tricky" questions designed to trip him.

Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) sternly asked if Schunk wanted to leave in the record a charge that the committee staff could influence the Secret Service. "I do, yes," said the 43-year-old mayor.

Schunk rejected an invitation from the committee to conclude the lie detector test after two senators said they "were trying hard to believe him."

May Subpoena Beck

"This is going to be settled in the state courts in Oregon," the mayor said. "I'll stand on that."

Schunk walked out on the partially completed test at Secret Service headquarters Monday. He had requested the test to support his denial on Friday of charges that, as Multnomah County sheriff in 1953, he accepted a $500 bribe from a gambler.

The mayor said one of the questions to which he had objected could—in his view—have been answered "truthfully" yes or no. He called it a "loaded" question.

The committee opened today's session amid indications that it might push everything else aside for a showdown with Teamsters Union President Dave Beck.

Portland racketeer James B. Elkins has charged that western Teamsters officials conspired with racketeers and city and county officials to take over vice and gambling in Portland. He did not, however, accuse Beck himself.

McClellan said Beck may be subpoenaed if he proves too "reserved" about turning over his financial records. Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy said the committee may make Beck the next order of business after its current hearings on vice and corruption in Portland. He said the decision depends partly "on what personal records he is willing to turn over."

Irvin to Petition Supreme Court

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — The first-degree murder conviction of Leslie (Mad Dog) Irvin threatened today to land in the lap of the U. S. Supreme Court in a last-ditch attempt by attorneys for the condemned killer to save him from the electric chair.

James Lopp, Evansville attorney, said he expects to petition the high court in a few days.

Irvin is scheduled to die in the electric chair at Michigan City March 23 for the slaying of W. Wesley Kerr, Evansville service station attendant. The 32-year-old former Evansville pipefitter also is accused in the "Chinese execution style" slaying of five other persons in Indiana and Kentucky.

An appeal to the nation's highest court apparently is Irvin's last chance to escape death. The Indiana Supreme Court already has turned down his request for a new trial and Gov. Harold Handley has indicated he would not enter the case.

Out-of-Town Friends Attend Williford Funeral

The funeral of John Williford, held Sunday at the Harrisburg funeral home, was attended by several family friends from out of town. Many others came before the funeral to pay their respects to the bereaved sister, Mrs. P. W. Sherman, with whom Mr. Williford had lived for the past four years.

The Rev. J. D. McCarty preached the funeral, and Calvin Sutton, soloist, sang "I Talked with God," with accompaniment by Miss Frances Cummins, who also played the organ for the quartet composed of Mr. Sutton, Bob Burnett, V. E. Joyner and Mrs. Helen Asbell.

Active pallbearers were: Tommy Endicott, Joe Abbott, Simon Sutton, Everett Pankey, Leo Foy, and Harry Harper.

Inactive were: Stanley Wilson, Hal Burnett, C. Aud Turner, Thos. D. Gregg, and Louie Conover. Out-of-town relatives and friends at the funeral included the following: Mrs. Emma Ashley, Herrin, Mrs. Lola DeJarnette, Murphysboro, Mrs. Mary Harris and Charlie E. Hughes, Fairfield, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Dallas and daughter, Lorna Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Edwards and son, Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rann and son, Charles, Carrier Mills, Elmer Hamilton and Miss Ruth Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Williford, Eldorado, Frank Marsh, Evansville, Ind.

Burial was at Sunset Hill cemetery.

Sentenced to Penal Farm On Two Charges

Robert O. Wilson was given six months on the state farm at Vandalia for child abandonment and six months for writing a fraudulent check when arraigned yesterday before County Judge Traffic Dennis. The sentences will run concurrently.

Sentencing was on recommendation of State's Attorney Robert V. Wilson. Sheriff William T. Barrett said the defendant, who had lived around Cottage Hills, Ill., most of his life, admitted writing a fraudulent check to the Cochran service station at Eldorado.

He also said that Marion, Livingston, Fayette, Jackson and Franklin county authorities will attempt to identify Wilson as a person who has written bad checks in their counties.

He was arrested by the sheriff's department in Harrisburg.

Burglar Even Takes Kitchen Sink

MOUNT VERNON, Ill. (AP) — Jefferson County Sheriff Leonard Wood is looking for a burglar who even took the kitchen sink.

The sink, a cook stove, bathtub, and a washing machine motor owned by Frank Noe of Woodlawn, near here, were taken Monday from a schoolhouse where they were stored.

In another burglary in the same area, a thief took 200 baby chicks, Wood said.

Hoover Warns U.S. Communist Party Still Moscow Led

WASHINGTON (AP) — FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover warned today the U. S. Communist Party is still "part and parcel of the worldwide Communist conspiracy."

"It is still responsive to the will of Moscow," he said. "It still works for the destruction of the American way of life and it still is dedicated to the building of a Soviet United States."

Hoover told the Senate-Internal Security subcommittee in a statement that the U. S. Communist Party used its convention last month "to convey the public impression that it no longer is subservient to Moscow."

He said the Communist move was part of a program "to thwart future prosecutions by the Department of Justice."

Hoover said the convention was designed to hoodwink the public with a "new look."

"We should judge the Communist Party for what it is, not what it says it is, but by its deeds," he said.

Indiana Assembly Stops Clock to Continue Session

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The 90th Indiana General Assembly went into extra session today with the clock stopped at midnight Monday night in order not to violate the state constitution.

A joint House-Senate committee announced agreement shortly before midnight on a school aid formula which was a major stumbling block to adjournment on schedule. But Lt. Gov. Crawford Parker said debate on the school aid issue and the state budget is expected to last another day or two. The Legislature is limited to a 60-day session by the state constitution.

Stratton Asks Tough Traffic Enforcement

hour day or night for trucks over 8,000 pounds and 55 miles an hour for lighter trucks.

The governor also asked the General Assembly to rewrite the laws governing speed in rural and metropolitan areas, giving counties the right to zone their roads at less than the 65-55 limits.

Stratton dismissed, almost scornfully, a proposal by the Motor Vehicles Laws Commission that would set the 65-55 limits but would make them only "prima facie" evidence of a violation, rather than flat, inflexible proof of a violation.

"I reject any will-o-wisp speed limit based on a Latin phrase—the now it is, now it isn't principle of prima facie," he said. "What does prima facie mean to a driver? Certainly when we speak of educating our drivers we don't contemplate a course in Latin or a degree in law," he said.

The governor repeated his request for an additional 600 men for the state police force and said 100 of them could be assigned to patrol the new toll roads now being built. The Toll Road Commission, he said, would be required to pay the cost of the state patrolmen assigned to the turnpike.

Stratton said Illinois is "ridiculously behind" other states in its state police force, with Illinois having only 45 officers to a thousand miles of highway, compared with 156 for California, 120 for Pennsylvania, and 109 in New York.

In asking for tougher enforcement on traffic violations, Stratton said Illinois now has adequate laws to curb drunken driving but "its doubtful" if the law which requires revocation of a license for drunken driving "is being used to its fullest at the local level."

Urges Driver Education

He said he has learned that particularly in smaller communities "some officers are inclined to wink" at continued driving by a person whose license has been revoked.

Also, Stratton said, Chicago in 1956 had 411,305 convictions for moving traffic violations, while downstate — with more than half the population and vehicles and more traffic deaths — had only 199,684 such convictions.

He said he has asked the attorney general to relay through the state's attorneys a check on the action of police magistrates and justices of the peace "to see that they begin to do their duty" under present traffic laws, particularly that one requiring them to report violations to the secretary of state.

The governor said driver education was the best long-range solution to traffic safety and recommended that the present $1 drivers license fee be increased to $3 for a three-year period and the increase "be used in an equitable distribution as state aid to driving courses" in high schools.

Stratton said the secretary of state presently requires re-examination of drivers when they reach the age of 70, but that this should be written into law.

He said he did not believe his recommendation of a law requiring physicians to report to the state infirmities of their patients which might make driving hazardous would be any "infringement on the high ethics" of the medical profession.

House in Budget Fight to Ask Ike's 'Advice'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House was embroiled today in a partisan fight over whether to ask President Eisenhower's "advice" on how to cut his peacetime record $71.8 billion spending budget. Democrats said yes, Republicans no.

Democrats hoped by late afternoon to ram through the House and speed to the White House an unprecedented resolution requesting Mr. Eisenhower to say where—and how deeply—he thinks his budget can be cut. Senate action is not required.

Outnumbered Republicans denounced the resolution as a "partisan" maneuver, cooked up by the Democratic congress to "shirk" its responsibility for budget-cutting and "pass the buck to the President."

Democrats retorted Mr. Eisenhower should be happy to tell Congress of any cuts that can be made in his budget. They noted the President indicated last week spending might be trimmed by slowing down some federal projects.

Democrats felt the resolution would at least dramatize the fact that Mr. Eisenhower is the author of the huge spending budget. Some felt that Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey's suggestion that Congress cut the budget has shifted public criticism of big spending from the White House to the Democratic Congress.

Thousands Give Pope an Ovation

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Thousands of pilgrims from all over the world gave Pope Pius XII a warm ovation today as he was carried in solemn procession to St. Peter's Basilica for a solemn high Mass celebrating the 18th anniversary of his coronation.

An estimated 20,000 persons jammed the world's largest church for the colorful ceremony.

Among them were 18 cardinals, 50 bishops, diplomats from 44 nations accredited to the Vatican, and Irish President Sean O'Kelly and Spanish Foreign Minister Fernando Maria Catella.

After the ceremony, the Pope appeared at his study window for 20 seconds to acknowledge the cheers of a crowd in St. Peter's Square.

$10.8 Billion is Estimated Cost of Accidents in U. S.

BOSTON (AP) — The total cost of all accidents in the United States last year was estimated at $10.8 billion.

This figure, said the Institute for Safer Living:

Equals the net income of the nation's 136 largest railroads, utilities and corporations.

Exceeds the total expenditure of the U. S. Navy for 1955.

Would have clothed every man, woman and child in the nation in 1956.

Would build 1,000,000 single family homes.

Would build 300,000 school-rooms.

Would build a new merchant fleet with 200 ships the size of the Queen Mary.

Would provide all three shots of Salk vaccine for every person in the world.

Blinding Dust Clouds Caused By Wind Storm

By United Press

A wind storm that scooped up blinding dust clouds in three states swept into the Great Lakes and Ohio Valley regions today with diminishing velocity.

The storm also produced heavy rains as it pushed eastward, dumping up to an inch of precipitation at Memphis, Tenn., and Alexandria, La. About 1-2 inch was reported at other points along the broad rain band from Louisiana to lower Michigan.

The season's worst dust storm hit sections of Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado Monday as winds hit peak velocities of 58 miles per hour.

Visibility was cut to zero at Larned, Kan., and to less than 1-2 mile at Goodland and Russell, Kan.

Weathermen reported an unconfirmed tornado near Alexandria, La., late Monday. There were no reports of damage.

Colder weather moved in behind the disturbance, with the greatest temperature drops recorded over the middle Mississippi Valley. One of the coldest spots in the nation was Minot, N. D., with an early morning low of 16.

Chimpanzees are the most intelligent of animals.

Big 3 Reject Soviet Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States, Britain and France Monday rejected a Soviet proposal to join in a Big Four "hands off" policy toward the Middle East.

The Soviets called for a joint declaration of policy in notes to the three Western nations Feb. 11.

The United States, in a note questioning Moscow's good faith and sincerity, said it "would not wish to be party to an attempt by the great powers, as suggested by U. S. S. R., to arrogate to themselves decisions on matters of vital importance" to Mideast nations.

The American note said the United States stands ready to cooperate with any nation which is

"sincerely dedicated" to working for Middle East peace in accordance with United Nations principles. But it said Russia should first "demonstrate its own willingness to carry out the U. N. principles by complying with U. N. resolutions demanding that the Soviet Union give Hungary a free hand in determining her future."

How hard do you huff and puff for money?

Here you are, getting up early in the morning, rapidly disposing of breakfast and galloping off to work. What for? To earn a living, of course. And it takes considerable huffing and puffing to earn enough, doesn't it?

Could you use some help? It may be right at your elbow. Or in your pocket. It's that part of your income left over after the bills are paid and family emergencies are provided for. Why don't you turn over in your mind the following five fruitful ideas about how that surplus cash might add to your income:

Idea one: Investment in common stock on the New York Stock Exchange makes you part-owner of the company whose stock you buy. This means that while you work for one company you are part-owner of another. As an owner you may share, through dividends, in the profits it may make. If it grows, the value of your investment may grow along with it. (You don't have to be rich — two out of three shareholders have incomes under $7500 a year.)

Idea two: Investment in bonds means that you become a creditor of the company. Most bonds carry a promise that you will be paid interest, generally at a fixed rate, and at a specified date the company will pay back the amount of the bond.

Idea three: When you invest, use the old noggin. Stock prices go up and down, like the price of practically everything else. A company may not pay dividends and it may not grow. That's why you need the facts about a company — not tips or rumors that may lead you astray.

Idea four: To your circle of people — worth — knowing add a broker in any Member Firm of the New York Stock Exchange. You'll find him glad to see you and delighted to put his experience to work for you at no cost. Let him advise you about a sensible investment program that fits your circumstances. His job is to help you buy or sell securities.

Idea five: Treat yourself to some fascinating reading in our booklet "INVESTMENT FACTS." It tells you about some 280 stocks on the Exchange that have paid cash dividends every three months from 20 to 92 years, showing their dividends and yields. And it describes how you can own your share of American business by investing as little as $40 every three months — or up to $1000 a month — in the wonderfully convenient Monthly Investment Plan. Ask your broker for a free copy. Or send the coupon. Don't you owe it to yourself to look for ways of adding to your income without any extra huffing and puffing?

Bull Dog Players, Coach Dotson Are Honored with Steak Dinner

A group of men last night honored the Harrisburg Bull Dog basketball team and its coach, John Dotson, for the work done this season by the boys and their new coach.

A local committee had decided to do something for the boys and coach and a number of persons were contacted to help with the event. It was decided that a steak dinner would be a good way to show appreciation, and one was held last night in the Elks lodge dining room.

Master of ceremonies was Curt Small, manager of The Daily Register, who first gave a rapid history of basketball at Harrisburg high school.

First basketball, which did not feature inter-school competition, was played on cinder courts. First games against other schools were in 1921 and the newly-completed Junior high school gym was used. In 1922 the new gym in what is now known as Bonnell building was unveiled and was one of the best in the area at that time.

Praises Dotson

Speaking of this year, Mr. Small declared he was certain the coaches and team would have appreciated having seen the enthusiasm all through the year that was manifest when the team got on its winning streak, but added "we're all human and like to win — when a team starts winning the people just naturally get more enthused about it."

He praised the work of Coach Dotson for his work with the little basketball league at the school as well as with the varsity team.

Coach Dotson, who stated this is the first time in his coaching career that he ever got his ears lowered with so many defeats the first part of the year, told of some of his teams in other places and what they did.

"The kids here just didn't hit the basket at first," he said. "And it showed up in the record. But they had determination, spirit, enthusiasm and they worked hard, and these with a command of the fundamentals of the game made them into a winner."

He said he has received no word of "sass" and did not hear of a player breaking training during the season.

"And last Friday night was the payoff," he stated. "This is a bunch of 15 great kids and we're going to go as far as we can. That's as much as I can say."

Also making remarks were Principal Eltis Henson and Athletic Director Lawrence Calufetti.

Area Coaches to Attend Clinic At SIU March 29

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Leo Schrahl, baseball coach at Bradley University, and two high school track coaches will headline the ninth annual spring sports clinic at Southern Illinois University March 29.

Featured with Schrahl will be William Townes, track coach at DeKalb high school, and Clarence (Babe) Pierce, track coach at Mounds Township high school. Two members of the SIU coaching staff, Leland P. (Doc) Lingle and Paul Tretiak, also will appear on the program.

More than 200 area coaches are expected to attend the one-day meeting.

Schrahl, a graduate of Notre Dame, has been head coach at Bradley since 1949. During that time his teams won five Missouri Valley championships (1950-51-52-53-56), compiling an eight-year overall record of 128 victories and only 60 defeats.

His many years in professional baseball included experience with Peoria of the Three-I League, Tulsa of the Texas League, Dubuque in the Mississippi Valley League, and Bearers Falls in the Middle Atlantic League. He managed the Peoria Red Wings from 1946 to 1948.

Last year his squad not only won the conference championship but went on to finish third at the National College World Series at Omaha, Nebraska.

Townes and Pierce, both SIU graduates, are two of the state's most successful prep track coaches. Townes, a native of Carbondale, coached at Anna-Jonesboro four years before moving to DeKalb in 1940.

Townes, co-captained the 1941 SIU football team and was elected track captain, but left for the Air Force before the season opened.

Pierce coached for 17 years in the Christopher schools before moving to Mounds this past year. His Christopher High School team won 36 straight dual, triangular, and quadrangular meets over a five-year period. His squads won 12 straight Coal Belt and Black Diamond titles.

Lingle, who will soon begin his 31st year as head track coach at SIU, will tell of his trip to the Olympic Games in Australia this past fall. SIU's alumni, students and other fans contributed over $1,700 so Lingle could watch Phil Coleman, former SIU runner, in the Olympic steeplechase.

Tretiak, assistant baseball coach at Southern, has had eight years of professional baseball experience. He was assistant baseball coach at the University of Missouri for three years before coming to Southern.

Rule 1.02 states "The object of each team is to win by scoring more runs than the opponent."

A similar rule probably may be found in rule books for all sports, but I never have read any rule book completely.

Always figured I would forget more than I would remember. Then would be just smart enough to argue, but not smart enough to win any of the arguments.

Shortstop Johnny Logan of Milwaukee says the Braves will have a Gasheuse Gang this year. Quoted in The Sporting News, Logan said: "We're going to dirty our uniforms and dirty our faces this year. Last year we were not serious enough. This time it's going to be different."

Musial Swings Big Stick in Grapefruit Play

By United Press
Stan Musial sports a .571 spring batting average today as proof he'll be swinging the big stick in the St. Louis Cardinals' pennant bid.

Usually a slow starter, the 36-year-old Musial has smashed four hits in seven trips to the plate in Grapefruit League competition and Monday walloped his second two-run homer in as many games. The blow climaxed a three-run Redbird uprising in the sixth inning and produced a 4-3 triumph over the Milwaukee Braves.

The world champion New York Yankees got three-hit pitching from Ralph Terry, Tom Sturdivant and Jack Urban to hand the Boston Red Sox their third straight loss, 2-0. Sturdivant, a 16-game winner last season, yielded all three Boston hits in the middle of three frames.

The Pittsburgh Pirates made it three straight victories when Danny Krayitz' single with the bases filled and one out in the ninth inning gave them a 3-2 decision over the Washington Senators. Rookie outfielder Al Griggs had three hits for the Pirates and Frank Thomas and Bob Skinner each weighed in with a key single.

Strikeout king Herb Score turned in a sparkling one-hit effort for three innings as the Cleveland Indians defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 5-1. The Indians had an easy time, collecting eight hits and nine walks off a succession of young Baltimore pitchers.

Rookie Andre Rogers, the sensation of the New York Giants' Phoenix, Ariz., camp, walloped a two-run triple in the ninth inning to clinch a 7-4 verdict over the Chicago Cubs.

Don Hoak collected three singles and a walk to lead the Cincinnati Reds to a 4-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies. Robin Roberts pitched three scoreless innings for the Phillies in his spring debut. Rip Repulski and Ted Kazanski walloped homers for Philadelphia.

Jim Wilson, Roger Howard and Dick Donovan yielded only five hits in pitching the Chicago White Sox to a 1-0 win over the Brooklyn Dodgers in a night game at Miami. The White Sox made only two hits.

Ample Supply of Tickets for Sectional Tilt

Tickets for the Harrisburg-Frankfort basketball game in the West Frankfort sectional tournament tomorrow night went on sale this morning to the general public at the high school and Athletic House.

Harrisburg has ample tickets, it is believed for the game, a total numbering more than 1,400, but there were no reserved chairs in the group.

HTHS Principal Eltis Henson said that regulations of the Illinois High School association provide that in providing a competing school with its percentage of seats, the percentage should be carried into the reserved chairs as well as the bleachers.

In the sectional tournament held here last year, he pointed out, the competing schools got their percentage of chair seats as well as those in the bleachers.

The seats at West Frankfort are all reserved except for the student tickets, but they are bleacher seats and some folding chairs on the floor.

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs, made the underdog in the contest by the writers and experts, have been practicing hard for this game and this afternoon were scheduled to go to Frankfort to practice on the Red Bird floor.

The locals will give away a lot of height to the Red Birds but the Bull Dogs are a courageous outfit and are a fine team which has shown improvement through the season and the local fans believe in them.

14 Schools in Sectionals are Previous State Title Winners

By United Press

Fourteen of the 60 downstate schools shooting for sectional titles this week are previous winners of the state high school basketball championship.

They include Mount Vernon, the only four-time champion; Centralia and Freeport which have each taken the state crown three times; and Elgin, Cicero Morton, Springfield and defending champion Rockford West, each with two championships.

Other teams in the field of 60 which have won the state championship previously include Pinckneyville, Peoria Central, Galesburg, Hillsboro, Thornton, Taylorville, and Champaign, and defending champion Rockford West.

The five top contenders for this year's championship are Collinsville, Elgin, Pinckneyville, Rock Island and Herrin, rated in that order in the final ratings by the United Press coaches board.

Elgin, which carries a perfect 24-0 record into sectional play, won the state championship in 1924 and 1925. Only two other teams, Mount Vernon in 1940 and 1950, and Rockford West in 1955 and 1956 have won twice in a row.

Pinckneyville, a perennial contender under Coach Duster Thomas, won its state championship in 1948 and since then has collected a whole shelf full of third place trophies.

Collinsville, with a 29-0 mark, and Elgin are the only two undefeated teams still in the field. And only three times in the history of the state tournament has a team gone all the way to the state title without defeat. That was Taylorville with 45 straight in 1944, Mount Vernon with 33 straight in 1950, and La Grange with 29 straight in 1953.

Of the five top-ranked teams, either Pinckneyville or Herrin must be eliminated in sectional play. Both are entered in the Herrin sectional, and will meet Friday night if they get by first round foes, as they are expected to do.

Pinckneyville meets Tamm in the first round, while Herrin collides with East St. Louis.

Rock Island also could get a test from Galesburg in the Moline sectional if both survive first round play. Galesburg has a 20-6 record, which includes 2 losses to Rock Island, but the Silver Streaks were rated among the top 15 through most of the season.

Another tough sectional is at Macomb where Peoria Central and Pekin, which split a pair of regular season games, are both entered. They will meet in the sectional final if Central gets by Colchester and Pekin gets by Farmington in the first round.

Elgin will meet DeKalb in the first round at Aurora West, while the other bracket matches Cicero Morton and Aurora West.

Collinsville meets Greenville in the first round at Vandalia, and the other bracket matches Hillsboro and Centralia.

WEBQ to Broadcast Sectional Games

All three games of the sectional basketball tournament to be played at West Frankfort this week will be broadcast over radio station WEBQ, both AM and FM.

Game time each evening, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, is 8 p. m. and the broadcasts, with Ken Hamilton and Elmer Gladson at the mike, will begin at 7:30.

Wednesday's schedule is Harrisburg vs. West Frankfort and Thursday it is Mt. Vernon vs. Brookport. The championship game Friday will feature the winners of the first two nights' play.

How come the new Ford rides so smooth and solid?

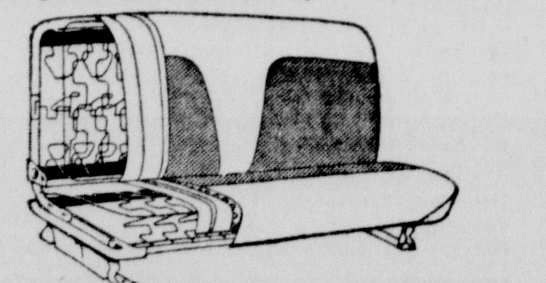

It's the new inner Ford that gives you a big-car ride at low Ford prices

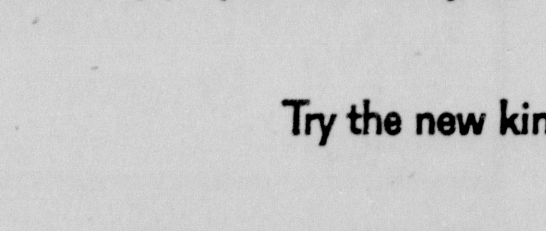

Folks just naturally love Ford's longer, lower silhouette. And they love Ford's new, more powerful Thunderbird V-8's and Mileage Maker Six. But the thing that's really got 'em buzzing is Ford's new kind of ride. In the new kind of Ford these vital riding features team up to give you the smoothest going in the whole ride world. They're demonstrated elsewhere on this page.

New automatic variable-rate rear springs
Going from a highway to a byway in a Ford, is like going from satin to silk. New design allows Ford's rear springs to "soften" or "stiffen" depending on road conditions. You get a smooth ride all the way!

New swept-back ball-joint front suspension
Ford's new, stronger front suspension is designed to soak up the shock of rough roads. The new swept-back design lets wheels "roll" with the bump and absorb it going away... for far smoother, steadier sailing.

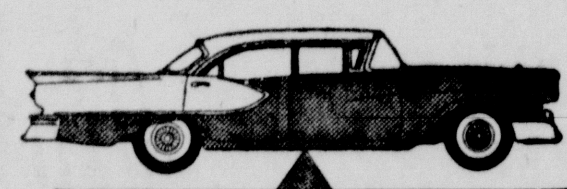

More comfortable seating
There's no sag when you sit in a Ford... even on long trips. Comfort-contoured seats, rigidly anchored, have advanced springing for greater comfort and longer life.

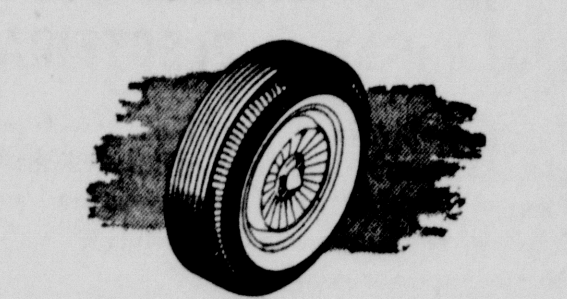

More body insulation
Ford has more body insulation—protection against weather, dust, and noise—than any car in the low-price field. You ride through city traffic in library-like quiet.

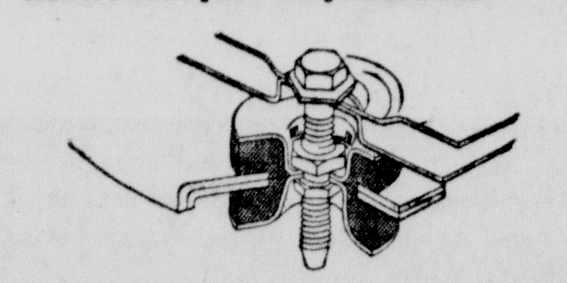

More weight and length
Head for the roughest road in the new kind of Ford. Notice how the biggest bumps lose their "thump"! One reason is that this biggest, longest, heaviest Ford has the extra "beef" to give a smooth, road-hugging ride.

Better balance
One of Ford's nicest back-road habits is to make believe the rough spots aren't there. Proper weight distribution and precise balancing let Ford iron out bumps far better than many of the higher-priced cars.

New lower-pressure tires
Even Ford's tires are new for a better ride! Although they require less air pressure, they hold about 17% more air for cushioning the car. This means a softer ride—without sacrifice of Ford's good handling characteristics.

No metal-to-metal chassis and body contact
Only Ford in its field uses 20 Cushion Quiet rubber body mounts... more than any other low-priced car. It all adds up to a smoother, quieter riding car.

IAA Official Charges Many Illegitimate Children Deliberate for State Aid

SPRINGFIELD — An Illinois Agricultural Assn. official has told a legislative investigating committee that some women deliberately bear illegitimate children to get relief checks.

Albert J. Cross, director of local governments for the IAA, told the committee investigating the public aid program Monday that he has frequently heard the charge he made in Pulaski County and "I consider it a sound statement."

Rep. William E. Pollack (R-Chicago), a committee member, urged that the General Assembly pass legislation to "remove the incentive for illegitimate babies." Pollack has introduced in the Legislature a bill to limit to one the number of illegitimate children for which a mother can receive aid to dependent children. On behalf of the IAA Cross urged the committee to see legislation requiring fathers to pay a greater share of the cost of rearing their illegitimate children until they reach the age of 17 and to deny general relief to persons who will not accept work "under reasonable conditions."

Committee Chairman Sen. W. Russell Arrington (R-Evanston) also questioned Illinois Public Aid Commission Executive Secretary Garrett W. Keaster about the IPAC's proposed 367-million-dollar budget for the coming two years. Keaster said he did not believe the public aid program could operate if the budget was slashed to 300 million dollars.

Reveal Secret FTC Probe of Coffee Prices

WASHINGTON — The Federal Trade Commission has been conducting a secret investigation of coffee prices for the past four months, it was disclosed today.

FTC attorneys have been quietly looking into operations on the New York Coffee & Sugar Exchange and have subpoenaed 68 of "the principal members of the exchange."

This was revealed to a House Appropriations subcommittee by FTC investigations chief Harry A. Babcock at a closed-door session March 4.

Babcock's testimony was made public today but details of what action the FTC intends to take were stricken from the printed record.

Babcock said his responsibility was to investigate "an alleged law violation." He did not indicate what the violation was or who was involved.

Have A $10 Gain Per Pig By The 8TH Week

with this STALEY Professional Pig Program

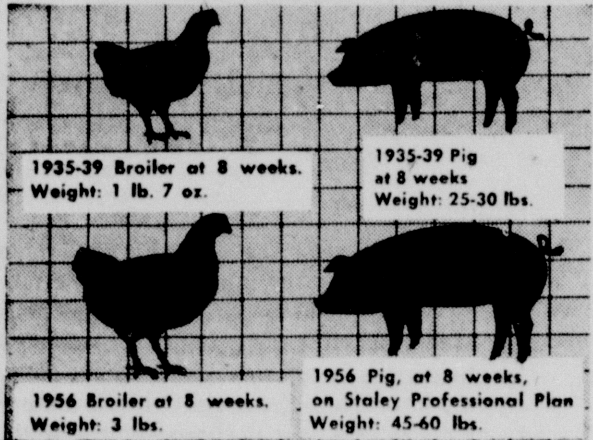

Yes, we mean "gain" both ways! At 8 weeks when most pigs have reached only 25 to 30 lbs., Staley Professionally-fed pigs are often over 50 lbs. . . in many cases, crowding 60! You have at least $10 potential profit: — you have put only $4 to $4.50 worth of feed into them — yet they're presently worth at least $16 per head (if sold as feeders!). And with 50-60 lb. pigs at 8 weeks, 200-pounders at 4½-5 months will be easy!

HERE IS THE PROGRAM

1. Only 10 lbs. of Staley ENZYMATIZED Pig Kisses Per Pig Fed from 3rd day until consumed — with no grain.
2. Plus 60 lbs. of Staley Professional Pig Grower Begin when Pig Kisses are consumed; feed straight till end of 8th week; total intake per pig should average 60 lbs.

ENZYMATIZED Pig Kisses make the difference! Enzymated with pepsin it gives 4-day-old pigs the digestive power of those 4-weeks old. Pigs can immediately utilize the high-energy values of solid foods. And Pig Kisses are sugar-coated for appetite appeal, quick assimilation and energy.

Pre-Proved Plan Outdoes Even Broiler Growers' Efficiency

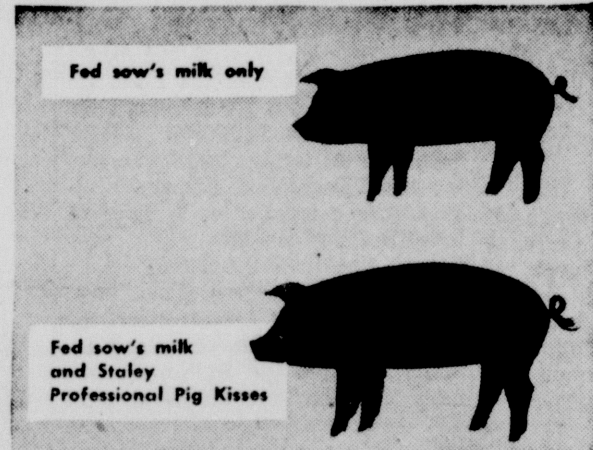

The broiler growers proved that meat production could be almost doubled in speed, and costs could be cut 20 to 25% per pound of meat. Professional broiler-feeders cut the time needed to produce a 3 lb. bird from 15 weeks to 8 weeks; cut feed consumption until they now produce 1 lb. of meat to 2½ lbs. of feed instead of 5.1 lbs. The Staley Professional Plan does an even more remarkable job for pig raisers. No risk now—it's already been proved.

The Big Pay-Off: 200 Pound Hogs At Most Favorable Market Time

Don't wait till you're finishing out your hogs to put on your drive for the early markets. The start you give those pigs — at the time when fast gains cost least money — can make a difference of 2 to 5 weeks in the speed with which you can market them. Give your pigs this Staley Professional start and turn your money faster — get more pounds of pork per pound of feed and grain.

See your Staley dealer now! Find out how you, too, can apply this Professional Pig Program with Staley Pig Kisses and Professional Pig Grower.

You can see the difference by the 14th day. As early as the 14th day, Staley Professionally-fed pigs may be 25% heavier than pigs fed to the 14th day on sow's milk only. High antibiotic levels, ample energy factors, plus "forcing" levels of protein, pile on pounds fast.

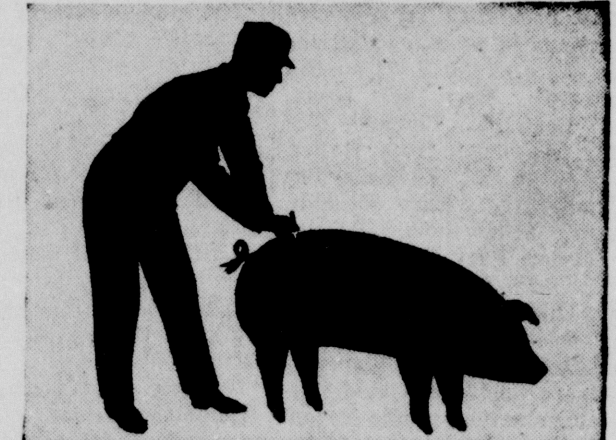

Staley Plan Makes Pig Feeders 30% More Efficient Than Broiler Raisers! — That's right — it takes 2½ pounds of broiler feed to make each pound of meat on an 8-week-old chicken; 1¾ pounds of Staley Pig Kisses, Staley Professional Pig Grower (plus sow's milk) per pound of pork on your 8-week-old pigs. After that, the Staley Professional Plan of finishing with Staley Pro-Lass and grain makes the Professional pig raiser again competitive in cost with broiler feeders.

Pig Mama Program

If you have extra time and grain, follow the time-tested

Many feeders who have early pigs, or who want to take more time in producing their market hogs and use more of their home grains, use the Pig Mama Program. It's an exchange of speed for simplicity. Sound, economical gains can be made on the easy-to-follow 3-step Pig Mama Program.

1. Feed Pig Mama and ground or cracked grain 50-50 to the sow and litter. Wean the pigs at 8 weeks.
2. Provide Pig Kisses in a separate creep for pigs at a week of age, along with the Pig Mama and grain. When pigs weigh 20-25 pounds, discontinue Pig Kisses.
3. When pigs reach 60-75 pounds, change to Pro-Lass and grain according to directions. Pigs should reach 200 lbs. in 5 to 6 months.
